

Humboldt Historic Preservation Commission

Commissioner Application Form

Please return complete applications to City Hall OR via email to historicpreservation@cityofhumboldt.org

About the Commission

The Humboldt Historic Preservation Commission works to honor our city's past while enriching its future. Preserving historic sites inspires pride, supports local business, and creates unique opportunities for education, tourism, and community enjoyment.

The Commission is composed of five citizen members (must reside within Humboldt City Limits), appointed by the Mayor with the advice and consent of the City Council. Members serve three-year terms and should demonstrate an interest in historic preservation. Relevant backgrounds may include architecture, architectural history, city planning, building rehabilitation, conservation, or real estate.
